

Anglais

Reflex'English

Expert

Lesson	Grammar and functions	Vocabulary	Skills and sounds
1. Could I ask you something? Personal information; classroom language	Asking questions	Language learning and classroom language Words for giving personal information	Reading: reading and answering a questionnaire Listening: listening for main ideas Sounds: polite intonation in questions Speaking: talking about personal information
2. Going places USA Plans and arrangements	Present simple and present continuous	Journeys by trains	Listening: listening with background noise, listening for main ideas Writing: writing a personal letter
3. All dressed in red Wedding customs in different countries	Describing a sequence of events (1): before and after , during and for	Words to describe weddings	Reading: reacting to a passage Speaking: talking about wedding customs Writing: writing about traditional weddings in your country
4. Are you a couch potato? Leisure activities	Adverbs (1): adverbs and adverbial phrases of frequency; talking about likes and dislikes; verb patterns (1): to or -ing	Adjectives to describe likes and dislikes Leisure activities	Reading: reading for main ideas Listening: listening for main ideas Speaking: talking about what you like doing in your spare time Writing: writing about other people's favourite leisure activities; linking words and , but and because
5. Face the music Different types of music	Adjectives (1): -ed and -ing endings; question tags	Types of music Adjectives to express how you feel about something	Reading: reading for main ideas; inferring Sounds: intonation in question tags to show agreement or to ask a real question Speaking: giving opinions about contemporary music
Video A Meet Hinda The interview with Hinda Hicks, a soul and R&B singer	Present simple	Jobs	Reading: reading for specific information Speaking: talking about music Listening: listening for main ideas; listening for specific information Writing: writing about your day; writing questions for an interview; writing an interview
Progress Check lessons 1-5	Revision	Countries, nationalities and people Techniques for dealing with difficult words Starting a Wordbank	Sounds: stress change in words for countries and people; being aware of speaker's attitude Writing: joining sentences using after and before clauses; writing a paragraph about New Year's Eve